The WSAVA Executive Board held its first meeting at NAVC in Orlando, Florida, USA from January 13-18, 2011. Highlights included implementation, updates and discussions surrounding a number of initiatives stemming from the 2010 Assembly meeting including the establishment of Congress Strategic Plan according to the recommendation from the Congress Steering Committee

(CSC) and the cooperation between WSAVA, local organizer and Core PCO.

Since the establishment and implementation of the Central PCO strategy for WSAVA World Congress, WSAVA have already received bids for the 2015 Congress reflecting the vibrant growing nature of the WSAVA and its global standing in different continents. WSAVA Executive Board also had the opportunity to meet with NAVC Board of Directors to exchange ideas and visions on continuous education for veterinary professions.

Additional initiatives discussed and to be forwarded to the Assembly including an expanded full services of Central Secretariat to assist in the day-to-day administrative needs of the WSAVA and several proposals for additional WSAVA Standardization projects.

The One Health committee, the V5 committee, and the Welfare & Wellness committee of WSAVA Standardization projects also held their meetings at the Marriott World Center Hotel in Orlando between Jan 13-18. A sharing session was organized with the committees, sponsors and WSAVA Board for mutual understanding of the progress and updates of different projects as common missions, visions and goals are shared.

As part of the Executive Board meetings, the WSAVA had the opportunity to meet with the 2011 Korea and 2013 New Zealand Congress Organizers to keep up-to-date the progress of the World Congress. WSAVA would like to thank NAVC board for their kind support of promoting WSAVA Congresses by offering exhibition areas to WSAVA 2011, 2012, and 2013 Congress Organizers as well as promoting WSAVA Congress in Jeju, Korea at the opening ceremony.
